

GPF e-Statement for the Financial Year 2017-18

As a part of continuous effort for providing better facility to the stake holders, the Pr. Accountant General (A&E) office has uploaded the Annual GPF statement of GPF subscribers for the year 2017-18 on this office website <http://www.agodisha.gov.in>. The registered subscribers can view/download/print the GPF e-statement by accessing the above website. The DDOs can also view/download/print the statement for all the subscribers under their administrative control. In case any omission/error is noticed, it may be brought to the notice of this office through their DDOs for necessary rectification.

Further, it is noticed that some subscribers have not yet registered themselves. It is impressed upon them to register themselves and avail the online facilities. The detailed procedure for online registration is available on this office website.

20-06-18
Dy. Accountant General (Funds)